

Jayhawk Central Bookstore is Closed

1. Where should I now purchase my textbooks?

All KUEC course books are available for online purchase. Check your student email account for more details.

2. What if I always had to buy my books in person before?

Students who have third parties (scholarships, voc rehab etc.) paying for their books will NOW be able to make those purchases online. Check your student email account for a specific guide to that process or pick up a handout at the KUEC Welcome & Success Center.

3. Will students have to pay for shipping?

Not during the free shipping promotional period of Aug 6 – Aug 31, 2018! A promo code will be provided to KUEC students to access this special, extended free shipping window via email.

- Promo code must be used during these dates only.
- A promo code will be available for second 8-week courses.

4. What about returns/refunds.

The online purchase process has instructions for a free return shipping.

5. What about book buyback?

Textbook Buy-Back will be available two days at the end of each semester in the Hawks Nest. Students can also return textbooks to any KU bookstore locations in KC/Lawrence.

6. Can students buy school supplies online too?

Yes. They will only be eligible for free shipping if they purchase a textbook at the same time.

7. What about caps/gowns?

We will host a Grad Fair in March in the Hawks Nest for regalia pick-up regalia.

8. Where can I purchase bus passes?

Use the RideKCApp or <http://ridekc.org/fares/buy-passes>
